Foreword

Hon'ble Chiragbhai A. Shah
Chairman, Parshvanath Charitable Trust

Our mission is "To enrich students with an endowment of knowledge for economic solid progression and to groom our students to meet global challenges has been successful time and again and appreciated too".

A.P. Shah Institute of Technology sprouted humbly and has branched majestically due to the yeoman service of principal Dr Uttam Kolekar Sir. Our efficient teaching staff have put in their valuable input in grooming our students and they in turn do us proud by excelling in various fields. I am very fortunate to have a very supportive and committed Management in realising my dream.

Hon'ble Pooja C. Shah
Trustee, Parshvanath Charitable Trust

Our vision is to be a premier institute producing globally competent engineering professionals to contribute to the socio-economic growth of India.

The dedication of the members of the working committee, and faculties of the college are responsible for the growth and success of creating personally mature, professionally equipped and service-oriented graduates is worth mentioning. The vibrant college life is incomplete without a fest and constitutes a major part of the life of students. OJUS, APSIT's fest is also the embodiment of participation by the students and is made successful by the hard working committee consisting of students from all departments.

Dr. Uttam D. Kolekar

Principal, A. P. Shah Institute of Technology

The wheel of excellence and continual progress has been steered with values, quality education, and constant improvement in infrastructure, and educational technology. From academic to dance, theatre, music and a variety of sports and technical events we focus on developing both the mental and physical abilities of the students. Our most sincere efforts here at A.P. Shah Institute of Technology might not prove to be the best but they have certainly been acknowledged by our students' honourable parents. My heart goes out to thank the Staff and non-teaching Staff who are an integral part of this institution.

Credit goes to our faculty and Student Council for successfully managing various events throughout the year. We, as a team are incredibly thankful for our Honourable management for guidance and support.

Foreword

Prof. Rajesh Behra Student Council Coordinator

Here at APSIT , we promote academic and personal growth of students as well.

We are aiming to make not only industry ready students but good leaders as well. OJUS is a platform where students from all the branches come together to work for Institute level activities and competitions. Unique and creative ideas work for successful events.

“Teamwork makes the dream work”, this line resembles our Team as every individual works really hard. With every activity we plan, we mould a unique and innovative approach combining education with fun and development of individuals. I am fortunate and proud to lead an enthusiastic and hardworking team. I'm thankful to the faculty, coordinators, students and management team as well to Institute for constant support. We promise to come up with new ideas every year to make events bigger and better every year.

Prof. Nitesh Chindarkar Sports Council Coordinator

Here at APSIT, along with the academic excellence, we believe in steering the ship of our college's athletic endeavors. With a passion for sports deeply ingrained in our students, we bring a wealth of experience in sports administration to the table.

From coordinating exciting sports events in OJUS that pulsate with energy to fostering an environment where each student can discover their athletic prowess, I am committed to creating memorable moments both on and off the field. My goal is not just to promote physical activity but to instill life skills such as teamwork, resilience, and leadership through the world of sports.

Council 2022-23

The Student Council in a college comprises elected representatives who orchestrate and lead various activities and events, serving as intermediaries between students and the administration. Tasked with representing student interests, the Student Council is instrumental in organising and executing programs and activities.

In addition to being responsible for advocating for student needs, the Student Council plays a crucial role in allocating funds for student organisations and clubs, while also formulating budgets for various purposes. Beyond financial matters, the Student Council acts as a platform for student expression, fostering a sense of community among the student body.

The selection process for various Student Council positions occurred on October 14th, where students from all years showcased remarkable dynamism. The appointment of the new council was carried out by Faculty Incharge Prof. R.K. Behera (Cultural) and Prof. N.R. Chindarkar (Sports), overseen by Principal Dr. U.D. Kolekar, who serves as the Chairman of the Student Council. The official announcement of the Student Council for the academic years 2022-23 was disseminated through the social media handles of APSIT and OJUS on October 14th, 2022.

The following were the designations in the student council for this academic year:

- President
- General Secretary
- Cultural Secretary
- Sports Secretary
- Ladies Representative
- Joint Cultural Secretary
- Joint Sports Secretary

A total of ground 13 students, pledged for these posts on the Student Council in ecstasy and for the advancement of the students at APSIT.

Shiv Jayanti

The 19th of February commemorates the birth of the preeminent Maratha warrior in our nation's history, Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, who serves not just as an inspiration but also as a revered figure for many.

In honour of the valour exhibited by this formidable leader, APSIT organises a distinctive event aimed at enlightening today's youth about the extraordinary leadership of Shivaji Maharaj. Traditionally, the celebration is infused with exuberance and conducted on a grand scale, featuring the vibrant beats of Dhol-Tasha, the rhythmic resonance of lezhim, and the spine-tingling fervour of the Powada.

Paying homage to Shivaji Maharaj, a statue of him is ceremoniously placed near the Saraswati Idol. The sculpture is adorned with exquisite flowers and petals, complemented by an intricate rangoli design.

In the esteemed presence of Dr. U. D. Kolekar, Prof. A.M. Deshpande, Prof. R.K.Behra , Prof. N.R. Chindarkar, and the entire Student Council, aarti is performed.

Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, renowned for his adventurous spirit and adept administration, transcended sectarian and communal boundaries, standing as a role model for the entire nation. It becomes imperative to acquaint the youth with the life and accomplishments of Shivaji Maharaj, encouraging them to embrace his ideals.

Hence, APSIT endeavours to impart knowledge about this indomitable personality through such initiatives and remains committed to doing so for years to come.

Heads Interviews

The selection interviews for the heads of APSIT for the academic year 2023-24 witnessed an exceptional turnout, drawing an enthusiastic response from students across all academic levels. On the 4th of November 2023, the entire council, accompanied by a dedicated group of volunteers, orchestrated a meticulously planned interview process for 13 different departments. Former APSIT heads of respective departments were graciously welcomed back to spearhead the interviews, meticulously evaluating over 150 students who participated on that day.

The interviews were conducted in a traditional offline format. Notably, the Event Management team garnered the highest number of applications, reflecting a keen interest from students. The other departments also experienced a commendable response from the student body.

As the interview proceedings unfolded in the GCR, the Student Council ensured a seamless process by organising it in batches, allocating specific time slots for each academic year. The palpable excitement among all volunteers proved contagious, creating an uplifting atmosphere that contributed to the success of the day and led everyone to the much-anticipated moment of announcing the results.

There were about 13 teams formed traditionally for APSIT HEADS 2023-24

Dance Auditions

The captivating dance auditions unfolded on the 23rd of January in the auspicious auditorium, providing a platform for all the passionate dancers to showcase their extraordinary talents. The auditions commenced in the morning amidst an atmosphere charged with cheerfulness. It was an exceptionally vibrant day for all the Apsitians, eagerly anticipating and thoroughly enjoying this much-anticipated event. Witnessing some incredible and commendable performances, the audience marvelled at the incredible skills displayed by every dancer.

On that particular day, the dancers radiated their incredible talents, breaking free from boundaries and allowing their emotions to take over the space with an exuberant and enthusiastic display. The judges were taken aback by the specificity and brilliance of the performances, and the audience responded with overwhelming support and active engagement, revelling in each moment of the spectacular displays. It turned out to be a fun, energetic, and admirable event, cherished and applauded by all the Apsitians in attendance.

Singing Auditions

Music, once embraced by the soul, metamorphoses into an enduring spirit that refuses to fade away. APSIT, in its dedication to appreciating music and fostering singing talents among its students, has been consistently organising auditions over the years. The institution was delighted to revive this cultural tradition once again this year. A melodious singing audition took place at the auditorium on the 23rd of January, 2023.

The event spanned a mesmerising four hours. The student council orchestrated every aspect, harmonising fields for participants, audience, and judges alike. In the spotlight, students from various branches and years dazzled the audience. Some delivered powerful solos, while others showcased enchanting harmonies in group performances. The repertoire spanned across genres, featuring soul-stirring alaps, acoustic melodies, timeless classics, and modern beats with beatboxing. Participants exhibited their talents either through soulful vocals, backing tracks, or accompanied by their instruments. The competition was graced by the presence of musicians and mentors, including Prof. Aditya Shastri, Prof. Tanvi, Prof. Madhuri Mule, and Prof. Rajesh Behra, whose melodious voices captivated the audience throughout the event.

A resounding wave of support emanated from the enraptured audience as the hall, far from being dull, glistened with the angelic voices that enchanted from time to time. The applause resonated with full enthusiasm, and participants sang along, lending their vibrant support. The auditorium, aglow with flashy lights, echoed with joyous cheers and thunderous applause that reverberated loudly. All our young maestros who took part in the competition achieved great success.

The anchors skillfully kept the audience engaged, maintaining the bars of energy quite high. Additionally, the volunteers did an exceptional job in maintaining silence to ensure participants' voices received due justice. The event concluded in harmony and joy, resonating all along. Singers and musicians were appreciated, and the audience was recognized for their wonderful energy. Participants left the hall with hopes of being selected, and the audience looked satisfied with the wonderful day.

Ojus Preparations

The grand and glorious fest of A.P. Shah Institute of Technology OJUS 2k22 included Sports and Cultural events planned and structured. The preparations started nearly one month ago. The fest was guided and advised by the Cultural charge Mr. Rajesh Behra and Sports charge Mr. Nitesh Chindarkar. The components of the fest such as start and end date, schedule, budget, venues, and management, were discussed in the Council meetings with the respective charges and approved accordingly.

Teams were formed by the council and allocated rooms in the college for their work.

- The sponsors were decided by the Sponsors and PR team.
- The Event Management team decided the events, location, and material for the events.
- The publicity team promoted the students to the fest.
- The Logistics team looked after the material needed and managed the budget.
- The technical team made a website for registrations and information about the events.
- The Literature team drafted messages and descriptions about the event.
- The design team created the templates.
- The cinematography and editing team shot and edited the videos for the promotions of the fest.
- The creative team took the responsibility for props and artifacts.

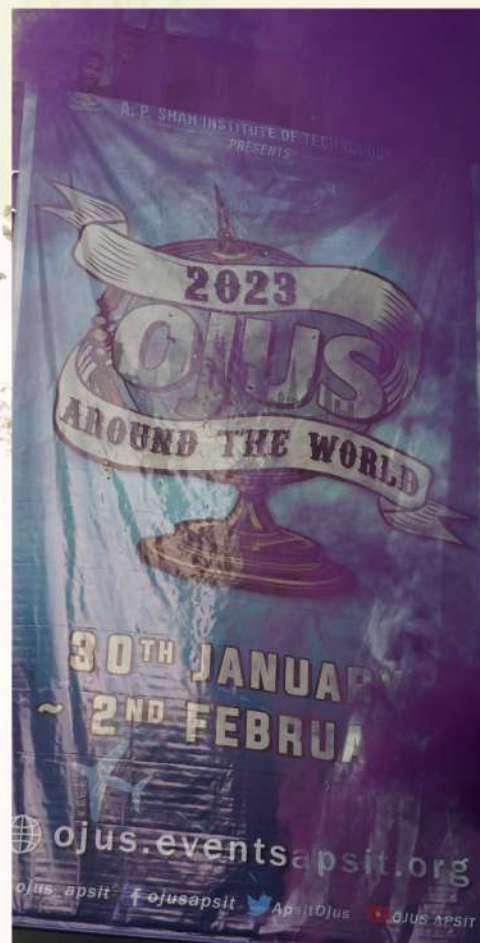

The council guided the teams and distributed the work accordingly. The theme for the fest was decided by the council and was approved by the respective charge.

Theme Reveal

The grand revelation of the Ojus theme took place on January 18th in the vicinity of APSIT's Flagpost area, marking an extravagant spectacle that left us spellbound. The unveiled theme was none other than "Around The World." This inaugural pre-event showcased a splendid fusion of the world's aesthetic essence through the outstanding performances delivered by our dedicated students.

Commencing with a melodious presentation by the APSIT BAND, the event unfolded with a dazzling fashion show that provided a tantalising glimpse of the world. The entire show proved to be a delightful spectacle, thoroughly enjoyed by the captivated audience. Following this, our dynamic and talented dancers took centre stage, setting the venue ablaze with their captivating and energetic group performances.

In essence, the event was a meticulously orchestrated and dedicated affair, characterised by meticulous planning and execution. It proved to be a resounding success, leaving both faculty and students thoroughly entertained and enamoured by the festivities.

Sports - Day 1

On January 2, 2023, the eagerly anticipated Ojus Sports Day commenced, marking the pinnacle of excitement for the year. The day commenced with effective speeches that set a positive tone for sports. The sports and cultural incharge Nitesh Chindarkar sir and Rajesh Behra sir illuminated the minds of the students with their words. To set the stage for this dynamic celebration, we begin with the resonating words of our esteemed principal, Dr. Uttam Kolekar who ignited the flame of enthusiasm with an inspiring address and then commenced Ojus Sports 2k23. Then we had a flawlessly executed march past. Each department students, adorned in their vibrant uniforms, showcased precision and coordination, setting a spirited tone for the day. The rhythmic drumbeats added a dynamic touch to the event, creating an atmosphere of anticipation and excitement.

Ojus Sports started with Boy's Cricket tournament. The Cricket event was led by Avin Mohan Sakpal along with three volunteers who were involved in managing the event. It had a total of 8 teams consisting of 11 players in each team. The cricket matches attracted the cricket enthusiasts and casual spectators making a count of 250- 300 people. Each team's batsmen displayed remarkable shots, bowlers showcased their varied techniques, and fielders executed precise catches. The matches were a testament to the passion for cricket and the sporting talent present among the participants. The flow of event was inter- department matches then semi finals followed by finals. Enthusiasts cheers and applause were witnessed which resonated throughout the TMC Ground in Kasarvadavli as fervent spectators passionately rooted for their respective cricket teams. The vibrant energy from the audience infused the cricket event with an electrifying atmosphere, transforming it into a memorable and thrilling spectacle for both participants and onlookers. The Civil department clinched victory showcasing their powers on the cricket field and the runner ups were IT department. The semi finals between the Mechanical department and Civil department was an eye watching event which captured the hearts of every spectators.

Sports - Day 1

The day moved further to another overwhelming sports Girl's Throwball. It was managed under the head of Tanvi Choudhari along with two volunteers. The event had total 24 participants and more than hundreds of spectators cheering for them making a huge crowd on field. The match showcased fast-paced action, with players exhibiting swift movements and agile reflexes. Teams engaged in fierce rallies, demonstrating not only their athletic abilities but also their strategic prowess. In the culmination of the competition, IT and Comps stood as the final teams, ready to face off in the ultimate showdown. Then claiming victory, IT secured the top spot, leaving Comps as worthy runners-up.

The highlight of the day was undeniably the volleyball match, where spikes, digs, and intense rallies took center stage, captivating the audience with the dynamic display of skill and teamwork. Aditi Panchpor and Om Chavan, spearheading the event, orchestrated a truly amazing experience. Supported by a dedicated team of four volunteers, their leadership ensured the seamless execution of the spectacular event. The inter- department matches were COMPS vs CIVIL , IT vs AIML +DS, MECH vs EXTC, H&AS(1) vs H&AS(2). The inter-department matches drew an immense crowd, underscoring the widespread interest and excitement as spectators flocked to witness the intense competitions unfold. Spike after spike, and strategic plays demonstrated the dedication and training put in by each team. The crowd roared with each point, adding to the competitive fervor. Each cheer echoed the collective passion of the crowd, transforming the event into a spectacle of shared excitement. The final match was between Mech vs Civil showed thrilling dynamics of volleyball. The audience erupted in a symphony of chants, their enthusiasm reverberating through the venue, creating an electrifying atmosphere which made the day a grant success. Ojus Sports day 1 left an indelible mark with its vibrant display of sportsmanship, skill, and teamwork.

Sports - Day 2

On 3rd January 2023, the day 2 of Ojus Sports unfolded as a day of spirited competition and exemplary sportsmanship. Featuring a diverse range of games, the day was marked by intense clashes, enthusiastic participation, and an electric atmosphere.

The day begins with the most energetic sport football. The football matches, led by the dynamic Pratham Bhagwat and his volunteers, drew a massive crowd of 100-150 spectators. There were a total of 8 teams from each departments. The field echoed with cheers as teams battled fiercely. Every match created unforgettable experience for both the players and spectators. The exuberant crowd witnessed H&AS emerge as the triumphant team, securing victory with skillful plays and strategic teamwork.

Then, the day was followed by the highly anticipated Dodgeball event, orchestrated by Bhushan Patil and a passionate volunteer with him. The audience was treated to a display of agility and precision as teams dodged, ducked, and threw with lightning speed. The 8 teams completed with each other showcasing collaboration of players working in harmony to achieve a common goal victory on the court. Each serve, spike, and block is executed with a blend of strategy and athleticism. The finals were contest between H&AS and IT. In which H&AS emerged victorious , securing their triumph in the contest.

Following that, Tug of War ensued with both girls' and boys' matches taking place separately. The event heads were Purvesh Ganjapurkar and Alisha Singhvi along with two volunteers. The sports brought forth a battle of strength and determination. Teams strained against each other, with the crowd rallying behind their favourites. As the teams were locked in an intense tug of war battle, the resounding cheers from the crowd echoed, infusing the arena with an electrifying energy that mirrored the fierce determination on the rope. The Comps team's resilience secured them victory in both the girl's and boy's match, underscoring their tenacity and teamwork.

Sports - Day 2

Finally, the athletics events added a touch of speed and skill to the day. The event was managed under the led of Tejas Shinde with three volunteers. The event consist of relay and 100 metre race for both boys and girls. Each department relay teams were made which consist of four participants eachand the 100 metres race had a participant from each department. Spectators witnessed record-breaking sprints, high jumps, and throws. The cheers from the audience at a count of 100 people served as a motivational backdrop for the athletes. The winning team for the boy's relay was Civil ,while the girl's relay was won by the team H&AS. Aishwarya Patvatkar(H&AS) took the win in 100 metres girl's race while Akshit Mahadik(Civil) took the win in 100 metres boy's race. With this the day concluded, the echoes of cheers and the sense of camaraderie lingered, making it a memorable celebration of athleticism and teamwork.

Sports - Day 3

Kicking off the day, the Carrom event at the Boys Common Room (BCR) under the leadership of Event Head Chaitali Sule Namaha Bollar and a dedicated team of 6 volunteers drew significant participation. With 25 participants on the first day and a remarkable 100 on the second, the event captivated an audience of 50.

The event's smooth flow was credited to the efficient management of each volunteer who was assigned to judge and oversee a board. Fortunately, no difficulties were encountered during execution, contributing to the overall success. The event crowned winners across categories, including Mrunal Shardul (IT) and Shweta Ahiro & Rutuja More (Mech) in Girls Singles and Doubles, Hariharan Iyer (Comps) in Boys Singles, and AZeeim Khan & Chetan Khumbhar (Comps) in Boys Doubles.

Following the Carrom excitement, the Badminton Girls event at the College Campus, steered by Event Head Sharvil Joglekar and supported by 5 volunteers, showcased intense competition among 30 participants. The event drew a lively audience of approximately 75.

Featuring a smooth flow with departmental knockouts and interdepartmental matches, the volunteers played a crucial role as referees. The absence of significant difficulties marked the success of the event. Notable winners included COMPS (Tine) in Singles and COMPS (Tina, Rakhee) in Doubles. AI&DS (Shravani) secured the Singles runner-up position, while AI&DS (Shravani, Riya) claimed the Doubles runner-up spot.

Sports - Day 3

The Table Tennis event, held at venues 208 and 008, witnessed energetic participation with 8 participants on the first day and over 15 on the second. Event Heads Somiya Panikar, Niraj Patil, and Saurabh Yadav, along with 6 volunteers, ensured the success of the event.

Despite facing a setup issue on the 4th, a quick adjustment and relocation of tables to 208 resolved the problem, maintaining the event's momentum. The audience, numbering 10-12, enjoyed the competition, and the event was deemed a great success. Winners included Anushree Salunke (Comps) in Girls Singles, Anushree Salunke & Anwasha Pani (Comps) in Girls Doubles, Zenil Gosher (Comps) in Boys Singles, and AIML & DS (Sumit Shahu, Shlok Dalvi) in Boys Doubles.

The Chess event, held in the Girls Common Room and led by Event Heads Sayyed Aarish and Miheet Shah with 4 volunteers, showcased strategic brilliance. Featuring departmental knockouts and intense interdepartmental matches, the event ran smoothly.

No significant difficulties were encountered during execution, contributing to the event's overall success. The day concluded with winners including Anjali (Comps) in Girls and Ritesh (Comps) in Boys. Runner-ups were from EXTC (Girls) and IT (Boys), with exciting semi-finals between Comps vs. Civil, Mech vs. AIML&DS, and Comps vs. AIML&DS. The finals witnessed a gripping clash between Comps and IT, adding a thrilling conclusion to the third day of college sports events.

Sports - Day 4

The 4th day at Ojus Sports Day on 5th Jan, was a success with strong participation in the Badminton, Table Tennis, Chess and Carrom for men. The badminton tournament saw intense competition with some skilled players displaying their abilities on court. There were 70 contestants taking part in the event. The event started under the leadership of Sharvil Joglekar along with 5 volunteers. All the Badminton players selected from the departmental knockouts were competing for the win. There were some nail-biting finishes. Huge crowd gathered to support the contestants. They weren't disappointed as they got to experience some wonderful displays of talent.

Following the same day the chess tournament was also well-attended, with players showing off their strategic thinking and problem solving skills. The tournament started smoothly under the management of Sayyed Aarish & Miheet Shah along with 4 volunteers. Being a game full of tactics and moves with a small group of keen people and with 40 participants the event began. The volunteers carried out their responsibilities of taking care of chess boards, and tracking the time throughout the game. All the matches were knockout matches and the one who lost had to go out of the tournament. The tournament was a tough one with all the contestants putting out their best skills. The event winner was Ritesh Patil (Comps) with the runner up from the IT department. The Table Tennis tournament was a fast-paced and exciting event with players displaying quick reflexes and precise shots. While some crowd was watching the Carrom tournament. The other half of it was inside watching the intense Table Tennis matches. The matches started under the fine leadership of event heads Niraj Patil, Saurabh Yadav and Somiya Panikar accompanied by 6 volunteers. The flow of the matches was as follows - Department matches for each category, inter-department matches for each category, semi-finals, and finals.

Sports - Day 4

The carrom tournament was also popular, with players demonstrating their dexterity and control on the board. Overall it was a fun and engaging day for all participants and spectators. A total of 4 Carrom boards for 100 contestants. The fixture was a drawn and split Men and doubles match to be played simultaneously under management of Chaitali Sule & Namaha Bollar. The matches up to the quarter final were knock out matches. Being a knockout competition, losing a game would see them out of the competition. However, it was noticed that all the participants took careful moves while playing. Every participant in the tournament was equally strong. A platform was provided to participants and they utilised it to their fullest. Fourth day ended. The tension in the game kept increasing as the day went on. Men's singles and doubles finals was a game to watch as the contestants played very well playing their best moves. Finally, after a hard fought competition.

The Events were well executed and highly successful.

Sports - Day 5

The grand culmination of our college sports extravaganza on January 6th, 2023, infused the air with anticipation and excitement, featuring heart-pounding matches in Kabaddi and Box Cricket.

In the vibrant backdrop of the College Flag Post Area, the Kabaddi battleground for both Boys and Girls unfolded, orchestrated by the passionate leadership of Akshit and Sejal. Eight teams collided, weaving a tapestry of competition that drew a spirited crowd of 350.

As the sun dipped, casting a golden glow on the proceedings, the event unfolded seamlessly through knockout, semi-final, and final rounds. The wise presence of Professor Kiran Thomre added a touch of authority. The event, like a crescendo building to its peak, encountered no hurdles, and the execution was nothing short of awesome. In a poetic twist, Civil emerged victorious in both the Boys' and Girls' categories, their triumph echoing through the college grounds. The runner-up titles were claimed by Mechanical (Boys) and Computer (Girls), adding a bittersweet note to the day. The semi-finals were mini-epics, with Civil overcoming IT and Mech battling past H&AS2 for Boys, while Comps faced off against IT and Civil clashed with IT for Girls.

Sports - Day 5

Simultaneously, the APSIT Campus Turf transformed into a cricketing arena, curated by the maestros Abhishek Jagtap and Shreyash. The stage was set for 8 boys' teams and 4 girls' teams, and as the dusk settled in, an intimate audience of 80-100 soaked in the cricketing fervor.

In the twilight glow, the Box Cricket event danced smoothly through each inning, punctuated by cheers and camaraderie. The volunteers, like silent poets, kept the rhythm of the event, capturing scores and harmonizing the crowd. As the final overs unfolded, the crescendo reached its zenith. H&AS1 emerged as the triumphant balladeers in the boys' tale, while Mech, the gallant runners-up, added a touch of drama. The semi-finals were tales of resilience, with Mech scripting victory against Comps and H&AS1 orchestrating a triumph over H&AS2. In the girls' saga, Comps emerged as the lyrical champions, casting a spell that Civil, the graceful runners-up, couldn't break. The semi-finals unfolded as Comps triumphed over IT and Civil conquered IT. The knockout rounds painted vivid strokes, with Civil emerging victorious against AIML+DS, leaving an indelible mark on the cricketing canvas.

As the day concluded, the cheers, the defeats, and the victories echoed in the corridors, crafting a tapestry that will be remembered long after the echoes fade.

Independence Day

On the 15th of August, a day pulsating with patriotic fervour coursing through every Indian's veins, people from all walks of life came together to commemorate the enduring sacrifices of our freedom fighters, allowing us the privilege of breathing the air of freedom. A.P. Shah Institute of Technology, in all its grandeur, fervently celebrated India's 76th Independence Day, honouring the struggles that have shaped the nation we inhabit today.

The festivities commenced a day prior in support of the "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign under the auspices of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. Approximately 50 students were assembled and handed the national flag. Proudly carrying the flag, they traversed the college, echoing spirited chants of "Jai Hind" and "Vande Mataram." The college premises witnessed an unprecedented surge of enthusiasm, fostering a deeper connection with one's nationality and instilling a sense of purpose among Apsitians.

The auspicious 15th of August dawned with the majestic unfurling of the national flag at the campus ground. The air resonated with silent reverence and was saturated with sentiments of respect and patriotism. Mesmerised students and faculty alike gazed at the breathtaking spectacle. The campus, adorned in saffron, white, and green, resembled a living Tiranga.

Independence Day

The day unfolded with vibrant cultural activities in the seminar hall, where APSIT's talented band delivered energetic performances, embodying the strength of the occasion. The musical ambiance blended seamlessly with spectacular dance performances, featuring APSIT's exceptional dancers showcasing moves ranging from classical to pop. The audience surrendered to the immersive experience, relishing the day while remembering and appreciating the significance of freedom. Students, faculty, and the Principal alike held in high regard the efforts and energy invested by every participant for the country.

To cap off the day, our esteemed Principal delivered a speech that swelled our hearts with pride for the nation. He commended the Apsit family for their collective efforts in making the event both successful and enjoyable.

Thus, a wonderful and unforgettable day concluded within the Apsit premises, celebrating the enchanting 76th Independence Day, leaving an indelible mark in our hearts.

Garba

The vibrant festival of Navratri promises nine days filled with exuberance, joy, and spirited dance, symbolising the triumph of positivity over negativity. Among the youth, it stands out as one of the most eagerly anticipated celebrations.

On October 4th, 2023, the A. P. Shah Institute of Technology immersed itself in the festivities of Navratri and Dussehra. The day commenced with the ceremonial worship of the machinery and instruments utilised across various departments within the college.

The flag post area served as the lively venue for a Garba dance event meticulously organised by the Student Council, offering an avenue for both students and faculty to revel in the festivities. The participants, adorned in vibrant ghagras, kurtas, and adorned with beautiful jewellery and phetas, created a kaleidoscope of colours. The event commenced around 3 pm with an enchanting opening performance by the APSIT Dance Club, captivating the crowd with mesmerising and high-energy dance moves.

The DJ skillfully curated a playlist of perfect Navratri tunes, enticing everyone to join in the rhythmic dance, showcasing various Garba steps. The crescendo of excitement rose as remixed songs played towards the end. Despite the weariness and perspiration, participants exhibited an unwavering energy to continue dancing. A competition was introduced and judiciously adjudicated by the Principal. Vouchers were awarded to the best-dressed student, a distinction shared by Itisha Mathane and Heet Rajgor, and the best dancer, a title shared by Shravya Shetty and Amey Mahajan.

As the event concluded, everyone may have been sweaty and fatigued, yet the success of the gathering was palpable. The students relished the festivities and forged enduring memories that will undoubtedly be cherished when they reflect on their college days.

Council 2023-24

Student councils provide an excellent avenue for students to assume leadership roles, amplify the student body's voice, address issues, and make a positive impact on their community.

These councils offer valuable opportunities for leadership and learning, acting as advocates for the entire student body. They actively collaborate with teachers and advisors to enhance the overall learning environment.

The interviews for various positions within the student council were held on February 14th, with students from all academic years showcasing remarkable enthusiasm.

The selection of the new council was conducted by Prof. R.K. Behra (Cultural) and Prof. N.R. Chindarkar (Sports), overseen by our Principal, Dr. U.D. Kolekar, who served as the Chairman of the Student Council.

The official announcement of the Student Council for the academic year 2023-24 was made on December 10, 2023, through the social media channels of APSIT and OJUS.

The following were the designations in the student council for this academic year:

- President
- General Secretary
- Cultural Secretary
- Sports Secretary
- Ladies Representative
- Joint Cultural Secretary
- Joint Sports Secretary

13 students enthusiastically pledged their commitment to these positions on the Student Council, aiming to contribute positively to the APSIT student community.
